

POSTING FOR A TENURE-TRACK FACULTY POSITION IN MINING MANAGEMENT

The School of Business Administration in the Faculty of Management at Laurentian University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates for a tenure-track faculty position at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor with specialization in mining management (the language of instruction is English). The preferred start date is July 1, 2026.

Candidates must have completed a PhD degree by the start date of the appointment, although those currently pursuing doctoral studies may be considered if they commit to undertaking or completing their doctorate in a reasonable timeframe. Relevant teaching and research experience will be an asset, and the successful candidate will have the following essential qualifications:

- A Ph.D. degree in Mining Management or a related field from an accredited institution
- A candidate a master's degree in relevant discipline can be considered if they have significant experience in teaching, research, or program management in mining management.
- Evidence of the ability to effectively teach mining management subjects, at both undergraduate and graduate levels with a commitment to pedagogical and academic excellence, promoting a safe, inclusive, and welcoming learning environment, and advancing Laurentian University's bilingual and tricultural mandates
- Evidence of very good research and scholarship with the potential to work collaboratively with colleagues, secure funding support and build internal and external interdisciplinary or intersectoral collaborations
- Commitment to promoting a diverse, inclusive and vibrant academic and work environment.

The position is available to applicants for the rank of assistant or associate professor with research and teaching interests in any area of mining management, or a closely related area.

The ability to teach in French, the other official language, is considered an asset.

In addition to active engagement and participation in teaching and research, the successful candidate will be expected to make contributions through service to the School, Faculty, University, and broader community. An on-campus presence is expected.

The School of Business Administration is part of the Faculty of Management. It currently offers Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA, 4 years), Baccalauréat en administration des affaires (BAA, 4 years), and Master of Business Administration (MBA) programs, as well as a number of professional development programs. The Faculty of Management also includes the School of Sports Administration offering the Honours Bachelor of Commerce in Sports Administration (HBCom SPAD). Students benefit from small classes that are essential to a collaborative learning style, group work and case-based teaching methodology. BBA and MBA programs are also offered online to students from various backgrounds and regions. The Faculty has numerous articulation agreements with Ontario colleges and leading universities in Europe, China and India, creating opportunities for overseas teaching and research collaboration, as well as student exchange agreements with various universities around the world. Faculty members are expected to lend their full support to goals relating to the assurance of learning process and the principles for teaching responsible management.

Laurentian University, located on Atikameksheng Anishnawbek territory in Sudbury, Ontario, serves over 8000 students and is one of two bilingual universities in the province of Ontario. Committed to its bilingual, tricultural mandate, Laurentian University offers an outstanding university experience in English and French with a comprehensive approach to Indigenous education. Laurentian's beautiful, forested campus is surrounded by fresh-water lakes, conservation lands and hundreds of kilometres of cross-country skiing and hiking trails situated in the geographic centre of Greater Sudbury, northern Ontario's major urban centre (population 160,000). Laurentian University has close and productive ties to Science North, SNOLAB, Health Sciences North and multiple postsecondary institutions.

Application Requirements

A complete application includes the following:

- A cover letter (including one of the two statements about citizenship/resident status specified below)
- An up-to-date curriculum vitae
- A statement of current and prospective teaching experience and interests
- A statement of current and prospective research interests
- The names and contact information for three academic references.

The application package, inclusive of all documents, should be submitted electronically as single PDF file to: Office of Provost and Vice-President Academic at academic-careers@laurentian.ca with the following subject line: Application for faculty position in Mining Management. The deadline for receipt of applications is November 23, 2025, or until the position is filled.

Laurentian University is an inclusive and welcoming community committed to employment equity. Applications are encouraged from members of equity-seeking communities including women, racialized and Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, and persons of all sexual orientations and gender identities/expressions. Laurentian University's bilingualism policy provides a provision regarding the language requirement for persons self-identifying as First Nations, Métis or Inuit. The successful candidate will be part of the Laurentian University Faculty Association (LUFA). Candidates are encouraged to consult the Collective Agreement at www.lufappul.ca.

Laurentian University is committed to providing an inclusive and barrier-free experience to applicants with accessibility needs. Requests for accommodation can be made at any stage during the recruitment process. Please contact the Office of the Provost and Vice-President Academic for more information (pvpa@laurentian.ca).

All qualified persons are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

To comply with federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information as to how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens / permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship; however, all applicants must include one of the following statements: "I am a Canadian citizen / permanent resident of Canada"; OR, "I am not a Canadian citizen/ permanent resident of Canada" in their cover letter. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

* Pending budget approval by the Board of Governors.