

Master Lecturer Position – Mechanical Engineering, Laurentian University

The School of Engineering and Computer Science in the Faculty of Science, Engineering and Architecture at Laurentian University invites applications from suitably qualified candidates for a faculty position in Mechanical Engineering at the rank of Master Lecturer. The preferred start date is July 1, 2026.

Applicants will hold undergraduate and graduate degrees in Mechanical Engineering (or closely related disciplines, e.g., Mechatronics Engineering) at the start date of appointment. The successful candidate will demonstrate a strong potential for outstanding teaching contributions in Mechanical Engineering at the undergraduate level, and an ongoing commitment to academic and pedagogical excellence in support of the school's programs.

As a faculty member at Laurentian University, the successful applicant will also be a member of the Laurentian University Faculty Association (LUFA). Detailed information about working conditions is provided within the Collective Agreement between LUFA and Laurentian University, available at <http://www.lufappul.ca>. In addition to being actively engaged in teaching, the successful candidate will be expected to have an on-campus presence.

The successful candidate will have the following essential qualifications:

- Hold at least a master's degree in Mechanical Engineering or a closely related discipline. Holding a doctoral degree in Mechanical Engineering or a closely related discipline is an asset.
- Satisfaction of eligibility requirements for registration as a Professional Engineer in Canada.
- Experience in teaching undergraduate and/or graduate-level university courses in Mechanical Engineering.
- Demonstrated commitment to pedagogical and academic excellence.
- Demonstrated commitment to promoting a diverse, inclusive and vibrant academic and work environment.
- Ability to prioritize according to students' learning needs, and possess a good rapport with students.
- Excellent communication skills in English. An active knowledge of both official languages (functional bilingualism) would be considered as an asset.

Laurentian University, located on Atikameksheng Anishnawbek territory in Sudbury, Ontario, serves over 8000 students and is one of two bilingual universities in the province of Ontario. Committed to its bilingual, tricultural mandate, Laurentian University offers an outstanding university experience in English and French with a comprehensive approach to Indigenous education. Laurentian's beautiful, forested campus is surrounded by fresh-water lakes, conservation lands and hundreds of kilometres of cross-country and hiking trails while situated in the geographic centre of Greater Sudbury, northern Ontario's major urban centre (population 160,000). Laurentian University has close and productive ties to Science North, SNOLAB, Health Sciences North and multiple postsecondary institutions.
