This proposed endowment policy was presented to the Finance Committee on November 21, 2022 and was developed based on best practices in the sector. Mr. Piché highlighted some of the significant aspects of the policy.

As a donor to the University, Mr. David Harquail declared his conflict of interest with respect to this discussion.

On December 13, 2019, the Board of Governors approved the current SIPP. This SIPP applies to the assets held in the Endowment Fund and other long-term investments. The policy reflects investment objectives, investment guidelines, and monitoring responsibilities. Mr. Piché provided further context explaining with the current agreement to transfer the investments for the endowments of the Northern Ontario School of Medicine (NOSM) held by Laurentian, the University asked SEI to perform a strategic asset allocation to provide the most consistent risk-adjusted return across various market environments. As a result, SEI performed an asset allocation review, presented on Nov 21, 2022 to the Finance Committee and provided changes to the existing policy to adjust the tolerance band between public markets and alternatives and to provide additional definitions. These changes are for the Board to approve.

6.4 Endowment Fund Distribution Rate for 2022-2023 and 2023-2024

Mr. Harquail invited Interim Vice-President, Finance and Administration, Michel Piché, to provide more information about this item. As a result of market risks related to COVID and CCAA proceedings, up to 2% of the value of the endowment funds was distributed during 2020-21, and no funds were distributed during 2021-22. Total Laurentian endowments on April 30th, 2022, amounted to $46.3 million of which $37.1 million were donated funds and $9.2 million (19.9%) related to accumulated investment income.

Mr. Piche stated that Finance reviews the endowment distribution rate annually and takes into consideration student needs, accumulated investment income, and expected market returns from the Endowment Statement of Investment Policy and Procedures.

Approving this recommended rate for 2022-23 and 2023-24 would provide budget clarity in hopes of contributing to meaningful/measurable strategic planning as Student Awards focus on allocating scholarships and bursaries to recruit and retain students. This will also allow Departments and Schools to help recruit and retain students.

RESOLUTION: Moved by Robert Brouillette and seconded by Tammy Eger.

THAT the Board of Governors approve an Endowment Fund Spending Rate for 2022-2023 and 2023-24 as follows:

- a total Endowment Fund distribution rate of 2.5% for the period ending April 30, 2023 (“First Period”)
- a total Endowment Fund distribution rate of 2.5% for the period from May 1, 2023 to April 30, 2024 (“Second Period”);
- unused distributions from the First Period may be carried over to the Second Period;

- October 31, 2022 endowment valuations will be used as the basis for the calculations
- individual endowment distributions will be limited should they encroach on original capital contributions

INFORMATION ITEMS

7.1 Financial Update

The Chair invited Interim Vice-President, Finance and Administration, Michel Piché to provide an update on this item. Mr. Piché provided an overview of the Financial Update report, as distributed in the agenda package. Mr. Piché explained this report was presented to the Finance Committee at its meeting on November 21, 2022. Mr. Piché outlined the University's cash position since February 1, 2021 to the beginning of the CCAA process. The report included the operating and segregated cash balances, which are separately listed. The operating cash balance are funds to be used to support the operation. Mr. Piché highlighted the quarterly cash flow amounts, the total operating cash balance (as of the end of October, 2022), the endowment fund, and the Fall 2022 total FTE enrolment results stating they are tracked favorably as projected previously submitted to the Ministry of Colleges and Universities.

Mr. Piché also noted the University planning framework that will be used to develop a budget for the next fiscal year. He added faculty, administration, senior leaders and labour partners will be meeting soon to begin discussion for the 2023-2024 budget.

A discussion ensued from a question asked by Tom Fenske regarding the total amounts of the salaries and benefits expenses noting there is a significant difference between the actual and projected totals and asked if these amounts are going to be realized at future discussions of the hiring of faculty and staffing positions.

Interim President and Vice-Chancellor, Dr. Tammy Eger stated that discussions will be taking place to identify where the staffing gaps are and how to ensure they are filled in order to do the work that is described in the Plan of Arrangement and the recommendations outlined by the Auditor General and the NOUS reports.

Interim Provost & Vice-President Academic, Dr. Céline Larivière added that additional conversations with labour partners would be had regarding faculty positions and the critical areas that require faculty hires. There is a tentative plan related to the process of faculty hiring that will be shared with the labour partners and aiming to action it in the new year.

A discussion ensued when Fabrice Colin expressed his surprise to see micro-credentials in the Laurentian financial plan (LU3.1) as he had no recollection that this had never been approved (or even discussed) at Senate. Mr. Colin added the approval of micro-credentials would fall under the purview and authority of Senate.

Mr. Colin also suggested implementing a one-year exchange program with other Universities. He used the example of Erasmus exchange program in Europe which fosters one-year exchanges in Europe as a way to attract more students to Laurentian. Such initiatives need to be brought forward to the Senate. The Chair welcomed Mr. Colin's suggestions and added it is a work in progress regarding the collaboration with Board and Senate and is part of the Governance review, as part of the transformative work needed for Laurentian.
