Message from the President and Vice-Chancellor

Congratulations graduates!

You have earned this opportunity to celebrate your achievements and we are honoured to have you with us for convocation.

I hope you'll look back with fond memories of your time at Laurentian University and of the friends who've shared the journey with you. You have surely impacted those around you, be proud of the impact you've had upon the university and its faculty and staff. As a professor for many years, I can tell you that students have a great impact on professors, making our role meaningful and fulfilling — thank you.

As you take the next step in your journey, do so with confidence. Not simply because of what you've accomplished through graduation, but also because of the personal growth you've no doubt experienced over your time as a student at Laurentian. You are ready for what lies ahead!

With Laurentian University alumni all around the world, it gives me great pride to witness the breadth and diversity of careers that you and your fellow graduates will embark upon.

I hope that you will take the opportunity to continue your relationship with Laurentian, to visit us again, and make an impact on the lives of the next generations of students.

Dr. Lynn Wells
President and Vice-Chancellor
Laurentian University

Welcome to the Laurentian University Alumni family.

WELL DONE, GRADUATE!

Your perseverance and dedication throughout your academic journey have led you to this momentous occasion – joining the esteemed ranks of Laurentian University's alumni. With a network of over 72,115 accomplished graduates, you are now an integral part of a community that profoundly influences society, culture, and the economy. We take immense pride in welcoming you into our expanding family.

As you embark on new endeavours and embrace the opportunities that lie ahead, we urge you to maintain your connection with us. Your alma mater remains committed to informing you about upcoming events, exclusive offers, and milestones with fellow alumni. Whether through alumni gatherings or networking opportunities, we are dedicated to supporting your continued success.

Take a moment to explore our Grad Handbook to uncover the array of benefits and privileges bestowed upon Laurentian University alumni, as lifelong membership benefits are available to you. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you have any inquiries or require assistance. Your insights are invaluable, and our doors are always open to you.

Once again, congratulations on this remarkable achievement, and welcome to the next chapter of your journey. We eagerly anticipate and value the incredible contributions you will make as a distinguished member of the Laurentian alumni community.

Warm regards,

Tracy MacLeod, BA 1995

HONORARY DEGREES

Laurentian University solicits recommendations from the University community for potential candidates for an honorary degree.

The awarding of honorary degrees is an important feature of Laurentian's convocation and is meant to honour both the individual and the University, as well as inspire our graduates, their families and guests.

The University's honorary degree recipients are selected from individuals who:

- Have made outstanding contributions to intellectual advancements in key disciplines offered at Laurentian;
- Reflect the University's values: students first, excellence, academic freedom, respect, alumni, diversity, truth, integrity, inclusiveness;
- Have been or have the potential to be significant benefactors of the University either creatively, materially or financially;
- Have made outstanding contributions to Northeastern Ontario; or
- Have the ability to enhance the reputation of Laurentian University through their outstanding contributions in their fields at the national or international levels.

Nominations are accepted when accompanied by a short biography and rationale for why this person should be considered. If you know of a worthy candidate, please email president@laurentian.ca. Letters of reference are not required at this time. Candidates must not be aware of the nomination.

Alumni Events

Laurentian University and the University Advancement Office host a wide variety of events. We've held events in Vancouver, St. John's, Montreal, Barrie, Sudbury, Sault Ste Marie, Ottawa, Toronto, Calgary, to name a few. While most of our events are held in Canada, we've also held events in China.

Stay tuned for our upcoming events!

Next steps to your JOURNEY

Now that you have experienced Laurentian and have conquered postsecondary life, we do expect our paths to cross again.

Whether it's by way of one of our 34 Master's or nine PhD programs, or as an engaged graduate or astute employer, we look forward to welcoming you again soon.

Congratulations!

Giving Back

As a graduate of Laurentian University, you're part of a vibrant community that continues to thrive long after convocation. Through our Annual Appeal, we extend an opportunity for you to reconnect with us in meaningful ways.

When you hear from our dedicated team of current student callers it's more than just a call—it's a chance to update your contact information, share feedback about your Laurentian experience, and life after Laurentian, and stay informed about exciting developments on campus. Discover alumni events happening in your area and connect with fellow graduates who share your passion for Laurentian.

By making a donation to the designation of your choice, you can directly impact the areas of Laurentian that matter most to you, whether it's scholarships, research initiatives, or campus enhancements.

Stay involved with Laurentian life and make a difference for current students with ease. Our students are eager to connect with you and continue the legacy of excellence together!

To learn more about how you can participate in the Annual Appeal, visit our giving website at www.laurentian.ca/give or contact Laurentian University's Advancement office at 705-675-4872 or universityadvancement@laurentian.ca.
