

DR. JENNIFER KECK LECTURE SERIES ON SOCIAL JUSTICE PRESENTS:

ROBYN MAYNARD

Assistant Professor, Black feminisms in Canada, University of Toronto

ABOLITION AS CARE

> Reimagining Justice,
Liberation, and Mutual Aid

AUTHOR OF:

*Policing Black Lives:
State Violence In Canada From Slavery
To The Present and Rehearsals For Living*

Join renowned author, activist, and scholar Robyn Maynard for a timely and compelling lecture on abolition as a practice of care, mutual aid, and liberation.

Wednesday, June 11
7:00 p.m.

Auditorium, Fraser Building
Laurentian University

Free admission – limited seating
Donations are graciously accepted!

SCAN TO REGISTER

Simultaneous French translation and ASL interpretation provided.

Proudly hosted by:

Laurentian University
Université Laurentienne

School of Social Work
École de service social