

8TH ANNUAL NATIONAL BUILDING RECONCILIATION FORUM

June 25 to 27, 2024 • Laurentian University

A Conference on Truth and Reconciliation Calls To Action

Join us on this 3-day exploration conference aimed at connecting First Nations, Métis, Inuit and university communities to create meaningful change in support of Indigenous education and implementing the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) Calls to Action. Participants will explore critical issues related to education for First Nations, Métis and Inuit students and Indigenizing educational institutions in response to the TRC Calls to Action through these sub-themes:

- The Power of Storytelling: Crafting Compelling Narratives
- Language and Culture: Elders and Cultural Practitioners in The Workplace
- Cultural Diversity: Celebrating Differences and Building Bridges
- Shaping The Future: Trends and Insights in Implementing Truth and Reconciliation

• FEATURING KEYNOTE SPEAKERS •

Tanya Talaga
All Our Relations:
Finding the Path Forward

Waubgeshig Rice
The Community Roots of Storytelling Careers

Dr. Susan Manitowabi
A Vision for Indigenous Education

Dr. Sheila Cote-Meek
Doing Reconciliatory Work:
Reclaiming Space and Place in the Academy

Theme: Indigenous Education and Mapping Out Institutional Spaces

Presentations and panels • Networking • Social • Field Trips • Feast and Banquet • Vendors' Market

Indigenous Programs
Programmes Autochtones

Universities
Canada.
Universités
Canada.

Register today as spaces are limited,
and for early bird pricing at:
laurentian.ca/nbrf

ELK SPONSORSHIP

Whitefish River
First Nation

WOLVERINE SPONSORSHIP

TURTLE SPONSORSHIP

Métis Nation
of Ontario