CHECKING IN

To check in, simply go to one of the Residence Porter's Desks. If you are checking in after-hours, or after the move-in weekend, simply report to the UC Porter's Desk, where a member of our team will be able to sign you into residence. Please note that you will be required to show photo ID.

OneCard

Once you check in to Residence, it will grant you access to the perimeter doors, allows you to use the laundry machines, vending machines, and your meal plan. You are encouraged to go to your self-service portal to upload your picture, which will ensure that your card is ready for you to pick up at the check-in desk.

VISITORS IN RESIDENCE:

No guests will be allowed in residence between August 14 and September 18, 2023, including outside guests, non-residential staff, and others. All contractors and facilities staff must be approved by the Residence Office prior to authorized entry. These restrictions may not apply to some people, such as personal care attendants for students with disabilities.

After September 18, 2023- A resident may sign in 2 guests at a time for up to 72 hours at the porter desk. Guests must adhere to all residence rules & regulations as well as remain with the assigned resident at all times. Failure to follow the guest procedure may result in a ban from the facility for the guest and/or a loss of guest privileges for the resident.

DRY DAYS:

Dry Days are in effect from August 14, 2023 to September 11, 2023. Drinking alcohol or being intoxicated in residence is prohibited during this time.
