

Roles and Responsibilities

Student

The Student is responsible for:

1. identifying learning needs in consultation with the field instructor and faculty consultant;
2. developing a Learning Contract with the agency as to assignments and developments in the practicum.
3. maintaining contract with the faculty consultant as to assignments and developments in the practicum.

Name

Phone

Email

Field Instructor

The Field Instructor is responsible for:

1. providing an orientation of the student to the practicum setting;
2. assisting the student...
 - a. in developing the Learning Contract;
 - b. providing the supervision;
 - c. participating in the evaluation process;
3. ensuring that the student achieves the overall goals and learning objectives of the practicum.

Name

Phone

Email

Faculty Consultant

The Faculty Consultant is responsible for:

1. maintaining on-going liaison with the student, and the field instructor;
2. ensuring that the student develops and applies the knowledge, values, and skills learning for the purpose of integrating theory with practice;
3. providing support to the learning process engaged in by the student and field instructor.

Name

Phone

Email

Field Coordinator

The Field Coordinator is responsible for:

1. the field education process, liaison and the general administration of the practicum;
2. ensuring consistency in the approach to field education with the School's mission and objectives;
3. facilitating professional development for those associated with field instruction.

Name

Phone

Email