

DEAN, FACULTY OF MANAGEMENT

Surrounded by five picturesque lakes in Greater Sudbury on the traditional territory of the Atikameksheng Anishnawbek First Nation, Laurentian offers a wonderful and welcoming environment and a platform on which teaching, research and organizational excellence can flourish and life can truly be enjoyed. The university serves 9,400 students on its campus in Sudbury, Ontario, and through its online offerings. It is home to over 375 faculty members, and is one of only two bilingual universities in the province.

Laurentian is currently in a phase of steady growth, realizing more than $150M in capital investments over the past five years. Its Faculty of Management is home to nearly 1000 students, 36 full-time faculty members, and offers four programs: a French BAA, an English BBA – with a significant online option, an HCom SPAD, and an MBA – with a full online option.

Reporting to the Vice-President, Academic and Provost the Dean, Faculty of Management is responsible for the overall management of the Faculty and will serve as a strategic and collegial leader to faculty, staff, and students. As of July 1st 2019, the new Dean will lead the Faculty in advancing the process of securing AACSB accreditation, which is currently in Year 1 of Initial Accreditation Phase 3, maintain its EPAS accreditation, and continue to build partnerships to advance endeavours in teaching, learning, research, as well as fostering existing international partnerships and creating new ones.

As the ideal candidate, you are a highly consultative leader with progressive administration experience. You come to the role with excellent knowledge and experience in the AACSB framework, along with a passion for building and delivering high-quality student-centered programs and an understanding of the possible links between the Faculty and the Sudbury community. Your excellent communication skills have allowed you to develop a record of effective engagement with external stakeholders, and you look forward to promoting the objectives and achievements of the Faculty of Management.

You have led departments or programs and understand how to achieve sustainable growth, build and engage teams, and deliver a high-quality educational experience to a diverse body of students. A deliberate decision-maker with a passion for innovation, you are a skilled administrator who understands resource allocation in the university context. You have a global perspective and will establish and maintain productive relationships within the institution and in the broader regional, national, and international communities.

Bilingualism or a willingness to attend French training will be required. You will be a champion of the Faculty of Management's role in implementing the 25 outcomes outlined in the 2018-2023 Strategic Plan, one of which is to meet accreditation requirements.
