

French Language Services Librarian

Laurentian University Library and Archives invites applications for a part-time (sessional) librarian faculty position (November 2024 – April 2025) that will focus on French language services in the Faculty of Health and Education and the Faculty of Arts. If required, the duties and tasks of this position can be performed entirely remotely and online, for an average of 12 hours per week

The French Language Services Librarian will:

1. Provide virtual reference services in French.
2. Provide specialized reference services in French in the assigned disciplines.
3. Provide library instruction in French in the assigned disciplines.
4. Revise and maintain Library & Archives website content in French.
5. Create and update sections of the online French information literacy skills tutorial.

Qualifications:

1. A graduate degree from a library school accredited by the American Library Association, or approved equivalent education and training acceptable for membership in the Corporation of Professional Librarians of Québec. A degree in the humanities is an asset.
2. Able to fluently communicate in French, both oral and written. English communication skills would be an asset.
3. Knowledge of and experience with information resources and tools used in academic libraries generally.
4. Demonstrated ability to develop and deliver effective instructional activities and materials.
5. Deep understanding of public service principles.
6. Ability to build and maintain strong relationships and communicate effectively.
7. Ability to work both independently and collaboratively.
8. Ability to plan and organize effectively.

Compensation:

Laurentian University librarians are Members of the Laurentian University Faculty Association (LUFA). Information on LUFA and the Collective Agreement can be found at <http://www.lufappul.ca>.

Additional information:

Laurentian University is located in Sudbury, Ontario, Canada: a modern city of 160,000 offering unique cultural opportunities. For further information, see <http://www.sudburytourism.ca>.

Laurentian University is a bilingual institution (English/French) and an equal opportunity employer who encourages applications from all qualified applicants, including women, aboriginal peoples, members of visible minorities, and persons with disabilities. In accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents. More information on Laurentian University can be found at <http://www.laurentian.ca>.

Applicants should provide a cover letter clearly indicating the position being applied for, a detailed curriculum vitae, the names, email addresses and telephone numbers of three professional references. Please send the package addressed to Natasha Gerolami, Chair, Department of Library and Archives, by email at ngerolami@laurentian.ca by November 27, 2024.