AfroBeats Dance Workshop with Big Moves

Join us at the Alphonse Raymond Gym, with Alumni Pierre Andre's dance group Big Moves to learn AfroBeats dance rooted in African and Afro-Caribbean culture.

Open to all!

Who Are We? Culture, Identity, and Building Inclusive Community (English session)

Our identities are complex and shaped by multiple factors, including race, culture, gender, and lived experiences. This interactive workshop invites participants from all areas of the postsecondary community to explore how identity influences our perceptions, behaviors, and interactions, and to understand how bias can show up in our everyday experiences.

Black Entrepreneur Day

This event celebrates the creativity and innovation of African and Caribbean students on campus. Join us in the Parker Atrium and meet student entrepreneurs, discover their projects, and support their businesses! We will also feature helpful community services.

Open Mic Night: Celebrating Black Voices

Join us in the Round Room for a night dedicated to celebrating black voices, creativity, and culture through poetry, spoken words, music, and storytelling. This event invites people to express themselves, share their work, and reflect on the impact and legacy of Black History Month and art in one spectrum. It is supposed to be an empowering space that encourages dialogue, creativity, and connection!

Qui sommes-nous? Culture, identité et renforcement d'une communauté inclusive (French session)

Nos identités sont complexes et façonnées par de multiples facteurs, y compris la race, la culture, le genre et les expériences vécues. Cet atelier interactif invite les participants de tous les horizons de la communauté postsecondaire à explorer l'influence de l'identité sur nos perceptions, nos comportements et nos interactions, et à comprendre comment les préjugés peuvent se manifester dans nos expériences quotidiennes.

LUACSA x Voyageurs Basketball Night

Join us at the Ben Avery Gym as the LU Voyageurs take on Carleton in an exciting game night enhanced with LUACSA energy! Enjoy live dance performances, food and refreshments, and a few special surprises throughout the evening. Come out to support the team, celebrate culture, and enjoy a vibrant atmosphere you won't want to miss.

Understanding Microaggressions and Everyday Bias (English session)

Microaggressions, often rooted in bias, can have significant impacts on individuals and the overall learning and working environment. This interactive workshop invites participants from all areas of the postsecondary community to reflect on how everyday bias can show up in the classroom, workplace, and social settings, and to build the tools to respond in ways that support equity and inclusion.

Talk Among Peers x Bridge builders Café

Join us for an open and inspiring conversation. This special edition of Talk Among Peers x Bridge Builders Café creates a welcoming space for students to share perspectives, exchange ideas, and discuss topics around culture, inclusion, and community. Come for the conversation, stay for the connection — everyone is welcome.

Comprendre les microagressions et les préjugés du quotidien (French Session)

Souvent ancrées dans les préjugés, les microagressions peuvent avoir des répercussions importantes sur les personnes et le milieu général de travail et d'études. Cet atelier interactif propose aux participants de tous les secteurs de la communauté postsecondaire de réfléchir à la façon dont les préjugés de la vie quotidienne peuvent se manifester en classe, au travail et dans les milieux sociaux, et de se doter des outils nécessaires pour y répondre de manière à favoriser l'équité et l'inclusion.
